In this course, students integrate academic learning with experiential learning. In preparing for community engagement, students explore a thematic course topic (which may be disciplinary or interdisciplinary), examine social structures, and consider what it means to cross boundaries of culture, ethnicity, race, class, or other strands of social identity.

This course satisfies the general education requirements SB and DU and is an honors course.

Placement in a community-based organization is a course requirement.

Contact:
Nicole Nemec
Senior Lecturer
Commonwealth Honors College (CHC)
Phone: 413-545-2483
nnemec@honors.umass.edu