Bragging Writes

We take pride in the things that Commonwealth Honors College students, faculty, and staff are doing. Read all about these things here!

CHC Students Honored at UMass Amherst Commencement
The University of Massachusetts Amherst will honor the exemplary achievement, initiative and leadership of some of its most talented and accomplished graduating seniors during... Read More

Taking the Road Less Traveled to a Sustainable Future
What does it mean to be “sustainable”? In this year’s Daffodil Lecture, Professor Paul Barten summarizes how the definition of the word has changed over time and how his own... Read More

Achievement & Generosity: CHC Scholarship Awards Ceremony
On the morning of Saturday, April 29, CHC students, along with their proud families, gathered in the Commonwealth Honors College Events Hall for the Commonwealth Honors College... Read More
Phi Kappa Phi Inducts New Members
On April 9, seventy-five students were inducted into the Honors Society of Phi Kappa Phi. Welcomed by Provost Katherine S. Newman, Chapter President Donald W. Katzner, and other... Read More

Rising Senior Sarah Coomey Wins Beinecke Scholarship
Rising senior and Commonwealth Honors College student Sarah Coomey '18 has recently been awarded the nationally competitive Beinecke Scholarship. The political science and French... Read More

Journalism & Japan: CHC Scholar Wins National Reporting Award
People have started saying that journalism is a dying art — or, in fact, already dead. UMass Amherst rising senior and journalism major Stephanie Murray proves that that is not... Read More

Remedies & Research: Pizza & Prof with Wilmore C. Webley
On Tuesday, April 11, Professor of Microbiology and Pre-Medical Advisor Wilmore C. Webley talked to students about biomedical research and its impact on not just your resume for... Read More
Dean Gretchen Gerzina Elected to American Academy of Arts and Sciences
Gretchen Holbrook Gerzina, dean of the Commonwealth Honors College and the Paul Murray Kendall Chair in Biography at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, is among 228... Read More

Linguistics Scholar Speaks at MIT
“Oh, so you study languages?” is a question that CHC junior Jack Duff frequently receives upon telling people that one of his majors is linguistics. The answer is, not really.... Read More

Numbers & Accolades: Honors Professor Wins Prestigious Grant
Professor Joonkoo Park of the Psychological and Brain Studies Department, and joint faculty of the Honors College, recently won a five-year, $751,000 faculty early career... Read More

More than Tang – The Ongoing Impact of the Space Program
The 66 CHC students enrolled in Honors 390EH: How the 1960s Changed America enjoyed some star power at their class meeting on March 30 in the CHC Events Hall East. Col. Cady... Read More
Alumni and Students Chat at Meet the Law
On March 28, 2017, students and alumni at UMass Amherst gathered to discuss legal studies, law, careers, and post-graduation options. Students and alumni munched on sandwiches... Read More

Alumna Danielle O. Dean Wins Distinguished Young Alumni Award
 Congratulations to CHC alumna Danielle O'Connor Dean, Class of 2010! Danielle was recently selected by the UMass Amherst Alumni Association for their 2017 Distinguished Young... Read More

"And Still She Persisted": Poetry with a Purpose
Run, run, run, trip, fall, cuss, rise, run, run, run. Such is the process that Senior Lecturer in English, Connolly Ryan, undergoes whenever he writes any poem. Not all of them... Read More

UMass Named Top-Producing Fulbright University for Third Year
The University of Massachusetts, Amherst was named a Top Fulbright Producer for a third consecutive year, with a campus record of 16 Fulbright scholarships that have been awarded... Read More
Entertainment and Education with Kate Leddy
According to the National Association of Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders, at least 30 million people in the United States, of all ages, genders, and races, suffer from... Read More

Remembering Repressed History
History is just that, a story. And before any story gets published, it is edited. Sentences are refined, and sometimes whole chunks of the story may be cropped from the narrative... Read More

A Helping Hand for the Honors Thesis
It is a well-known fact that all CHC students have to eventually complete an honors thesis or project. It is something that looms over us all, but for two and a half years, we can... Read More

Professor Manisha Sinha Discusses Slave Resistance and the Making of American Abolition
During a recent Black History Month Celebration event, Professor Manisha Sinha (Draper Professor of Early American History at the University of Connecticut), discussed her... Read More
Launching an International Career
As an undergraduate studying psychology at UMass Amherst, alumna Rebecca Owen ’12 did not expect to end up at the Middlebury Institute for International Studies (MIIS) in Monterey... Read More