Bragging Writes

We take pride in the things that Commonwealth Honors College students, faculty, and staff are doing. Read all about these things here!

A Reputation for Excellence
If you’ve eaten deep-dish pizza, you can probably thank Aaron Spencer. If you’ve ever taken an Honors College course at UMass, you can thank him for that, too. Spencer grew up... Read More

Greenbaum Spaces Dedicated
“Look what happens when you plant the right seed,” said Provost James Staros at the dedication of the Louis & Hilda Greenbaum Gallery and Louis S. Greenbaum Classroom. “... Read More

Success on a Global Stage
Since 1999, Psychology Professor and Director of the Office of National Scholarship Advisement (ONSA) Susan Whitbourne has worked to put UMass students on the global map. Growing... Read More

Learning by Doing
Each summer, UMass Amherst welcomes motivated high school students aged 15 to 18 interested in special topics to campus for the Summer College program. Through this program,... Read More

Searching for Stars
The Large Millimeter Telescope has been fifteen years in the making. Kevin Harrington
'16, a UMass Amherst astronomy and psychology honors student, was the first undergraduate to... Read More

Porell Receives Furcolo Award
Ellen Porell ’14, resource economics and finance, received the Kathryn F. Furcolo Award for Outstanding Internships during a May 5 ceremony. Porell is a Fitchburg resident and... Read More

Graduating Student Leaders Honored
At its 2014 Commencement Ceremony, the University of Massachusetts Amherst honored twelve students who represent some of the most accomplished seniors graduating from UMass. Ten... Read More

Two Leaders in the Making
Two CHC students received the “Leaders in the Making” award at the annual UMass Amherst Alumni Association Distinguished Awards Luncheon in the flag room at the State House. With... Read More

Schultz One of 29 Who Shine
Kurt Schultz ’14 was recognized as one of 29 who shine in this year’s Boston.com feature, which highlights one student from each of the 29 public college and university campuses... Read More

Who Are We? Asks Student Speaker
“How can we contribute to society and remain free as individuals?” asked Kurt Schultz ’14, a biochemistry and molecular biology major from Northborough, Mass., as he began his... Read More

A Celebration for Excellent Students
Commonwealth Honors College congratulated 560 members of the UMass Amherst class of 2014 during the Celebration of Excellence on May 9. The ceremony, held in the Mullins Center,... Read More

Miller Receives Critical Language Scholarship
Katherine Miller '14, an anthropology and Middle Eastern studies student was recently awarded a Critical Language Scholarship by the U.S. Department of State to study arabic this... Read More

Howard Classroom Wings Dedicated
“We are here to celebrate the vision, dedication, commitment and generosity of Mel Howard,” Chancellor Subbaswamy said to open the dedication ceremony of the Melvin Howard... Read More

Celebrating Achievement
Students, families, and Commonwealth Honors College faculty and staff gathered on Friday, April 25 to celebrate this year’s CHC Scholarship Award recipients. Over thirty different... Read More

Undergrads Present Their Research
Over 1,000 students from 22 of the Commonwealth's public community colleges, state colleges and universities presented at the 20th Annual Massachusetts Statewide Undergraduate... Read More

Research Conference Turns 20
This year marks the 20th annual Massachusetts Statewide Undergraduate Research Conference co-sponsored by Commonwealth Honors College and the Massachusetts System of Public Higher... Read More

Khanna Fights For Change in D.C.
“If we implement a forward-thinking innovation platform, we will be the leader of the 21st Century,” says alumnus Derek Khanna '11. “With an innovation agenda, we get 4 percent... Read More

iCons Solves Real World Problems
How do you stop a cholera outbreak like the one in Haiti after the 2010 earthquake? That is the kind of question that students in the Integrated Concentration in Science analyze... Read More
Student Spotlight: Victoria Wang
Emerging Scholar Victoria Wang has already made great strides in showcasing her skills as a researcher. In 2011, her sophomore year at UMass, she assisted with research collection... Read More

Saunders Receives Distinguished Young Alumni Award
CHC alumnus John T. Saunders III ('06) was recently nominated for the UMass Amherst Alumni Association’s Distinguished Young Alumni Award, which he accepted on Wednesday, April 2... Read More

Source URL (retrieved on 04/08/2016 - 9:09pm): https://www.honors.umass.edu/bragging-writes?page=6