Leadership Opportunities

Commonwealth Honors College encourages students to get involved by engaging in various leadership opportunities.

If you would like to give input and advice from a student perspective directly to the Dean of the college, attend a Student Advisory Board meeting. There you can work with other peers to explore how Commonwealth Honors College is meeting the needs of students.

If you have an interest in working in our office as a Peer Advisor or planning programs as a Peer Program Coordinator, we encourage you to apply to be a Peer Intern.

Students also get involved by assisting with first year students at the Welcome Weekend Orientation. You can apply to be a Welcome Weekend Orientation Leader and assist incoming first-year students with their transition to Commonwealth Honors College and UMass.
