The Ideas Honors RAP is a great choice for students who are looking for more flexibility in their Honors RAP. In this program, you will take Ideas that Change the World, a required Honors course for first-year students. All students in your section of this class will live near you (on your floor or a nearby floor). This program is located in several locations, and there is no application required.

- Melville - located on a floor in Melville Hall, a first-year honors living learning community in a southwest low-rise
- Upper Oak - located on the top floors of OakHouse in the Commonwealth Honors College Residential Community
- Lower Oak - located on the bottom floors of Oak House in the Commonwealth Honors College Residential Community
- Upper Sycamore - located on the top floors of Sycamore House in the Commonwealth Honors College Residential Community
- Lower Sycamore - located on the bottom floors of Sycamore House in the Commonwealth Honors College Residential Community
