Augusta Savage Gallery Celebrating John Bracey

Date:
Thu, 04/21/2016 - 7:00pm

Event Description:

The Augusta Savage Gallery celebrates Professor John Bracey April 21 at 7:00 p.m. Come and share a story, sing a song or simply join the party!

Professor Bracey has taught in the W.E.B. Du Bois Department of Afro-American Studies at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst since 1972. He is now department chair and co-director of the department’s graduate certificate in African Diaspora Studies. His major academic interests are in African American social history, radical ideologies and movements, and the history of African American Women and more recently the interactions between Native Americans and African Americans, and Afro-Latinos in the United States.

The event will feature special guests Avery Sharpe, Eshu Bumpus, Art Steele, The New Africa House Ensemble and others.
