Outstanding. That's what our students are. That's what our community is. The new award-winning Honors Residential Community is a place for all of our students to call home, no matter where they reside. Students enter Commonwealth Honors College with strong academic backgrounds. They leave as scholars with confidence, experience, and preparation for success.

In honors classrooms, the ideas fly and the conversations flow. By design, class size is small so that students get the chance to explore topics and concepts in depth. Our community values outstanding academic performance, encourages deep intellectual curiosity, and fosters diversity and inclusion.
