The Honors Thesis/Project Series: We'll Get You There!

CHC juniors: this series of workshops is just for you! If you missed them, resources from the workshops will be available after each event!

The offerings in "Honors Thesis/Project: We'll Get You There!" help students understand and prepare for the Honors Thesis/Project—from development of an idea through submission of the final paperwork.

All workshops are held:
Thursdays
5:00-6:15 p.m.
CHC Events Hall

September 21: What is an Honors Thesis or Project? How do I get started?

Attend this workshop to learn more about the following topics:

- Why a thesis?
- Timeline for completing a thesis
- Scope of thesis
- Finding a committee
- A thesis seminar vs an individual thesis
- A thesis in social and behavioral sciences
- A thesis in a STEM field
- A thesis in the arts

October 19: Developing a Thesis Concept and Proposal

Are you having difficulty finding a specific topic, or narrowing down an idea to ultimately complete a thesis? This workshop will examine how to find and refine a topic.

November 2: Time Management and Writing Habits
This workshop will help you learn strategies to manage your time and set realistic goals in order to successfully write your thesis.

February: Resources for Research

- Reference Librarian, WEB DuBois Library

Explore the research and writing process in more depth.

March: Research Skills

Hear from a variety of faculty who have sponsored theses from different disciplines.

April: Putting the Pieces Together

Now that you are launched, how is it going? Do you need help? You will have a chance to ask questions and assist in troubleshooting any upcoming issues.

This timely workshop will also cover how to finalize your 499Y form and register your thesis.
