Honors RAPs

As an entering honors first-year student, you may join an Honors Residential Academic Program (RAP). These programs offer students the opportunity to live together and study together. The courses selected as part of these programs assist you in meeting your General Education and Honors requirements. During the first semester, you'll take one or two courses with other honors students living on or near your floor. Each of these Honors RAPs is located within one of the three Commonwealth Honors College Living-Learning Communities, also designated as Residential First Year Experience Halls.

Some of the programs are by application. The application period is March 1 - May 9.

Here are the Honors RAPs that will be offered in Fall 2016:

- BioTAP
- Creativity Honors RAP
- Engineering Honors RAP
- Global Learning Honors RAP
- Ideas Honors RAP
- Isenberg Honors RAP
- Leadership Honors RAP
- Nursing Honors RAP
- Topics in Health and Science Honors RAP

To see the University's full RAP selection, please look at the RAP website.
