

McGoldrick-Jenkins Family Scholarship

University of Massachusetts Amherst Commonwealth Honors College members in their first, second or third year of study with strong academic performance and financial need are eligible to apply for the McGoldrick-Jenkins Family Scholarship.

Description

The McGoldrick-Jenkins Family Scholarship was founded by members of the McGoldrick-Jenkins Family, several of whom are grateful UMass and Commonwealth Honors College alumni. The purpose of the scholarship is to provide financial support for Commonwealth Honors College students with strong academic performance and financial need as determined by the UMass Amherst Financial Aid Office. Current first-year students, sophomores, and juniors can apply.

Eligibility

Commonwealth Honors College students in their first, second or third year of study are eligible to apply.
