

Academic Works Applications Open December 15th

The Commonwealth Honors College Application opens on December 15 in the Academic Works Scholarship Application System. What does that mean for you?

1. If you've never used the system, watch the video tutorial: <https://youtu.be/EhTIAphnCaE>
2. You log into the system with your NetID and password and complete the General Application and the CHC Conditional Application: <http://umass.academicworks.com>
3. You need to complete all the questions on your applications in order to get applied to as many scholarships as possible. Students who used the system to apply last year will need to update their applications.
4. You must make sure your CHC application is submitted by February 28, 2019 at 11:59pm. Applications submitted after this time will not be accepted.

Please note: Students in CHC and BDIC use CHC Conditional Application to apply for scholarships. If you are in BDIC but not CHC, you still use the CHC Conditional Application to apply for BDIC scholarships.
