Classics 102H: Introduction to Roman Civilization

Introduction to Roman Civilization - This course will introduce students to the significant literary sources of the early Roman Empire from the period of Augustus to Trajan. These sources will include historical works, Roman poetry, Roman literary prose, personal letters, and selected works of modern Classical scholarship. Cultural and artistic material will also be presented periodically. Students will be expected to read significant passages for Tuesday discussions, and absorb historical and analytical material from Thursday lectures.
