Honors RAP: Creativity

The Creativity Honors RAP is in the Commonwealth Honors College Residential Community and will have a focus on arts and writing. In addition to the main gen ed course in this RAP, students will enroll in a 1-credit course where they will further explore topics in literature as well as intersections between various genres of writing and the arts. This Honors RAP is a great choice for students who are interested in creative exploration, no matter what their major. Students in this Honors RAP will live with others in their Honors RAP on a floor in Oak House.
