Honors RAP: Isenberg

Three distinct programs have been developed for students who have been accepted to Isenberg School of Management. These programs are all located in the Sycamore House, one of the first-year buildings in Commonwealth Honors College Residential Community (CHCRC). Students will be enrolled in an Economics course (required for all Isenberg majors). Each program also has a 1-credit Isenberg Honors RAP seminar designed to enhance their experience in their program. Students in this Honors RAP are expected to live with others in their Isenberg Honors RAP.

- Isenberg Honors: World of Possibilities and Business will be located in Sycamore Hall. Students in this Isenberg Honors RAP will enroll in Economics 103H and the one-credit seminar "How to Be Great at Anything" (please see description below).
- Isenberg Honors: Entrepreneurial Explorations will be located in Sycamore Hall. Students in this program will be enrolled in Economics 103H as well as the one-credit seminar "Becoming a Game-Changer" (please see description below).
- Isenberg Honors: Theme TBA this program, located in Sycamore Hall will be finalized soon.

An application is required for each of these Honors RAPs

Related Courses:

- Econ 103H: Introduction to Microeconomics
- Business Seminar: How to be Great at Anything
- Business Seminar: Becoming a Game Changer
- Business Seminar: Product and Service Infrastructure Redesign for Millennials
- Business Seminar: Creating Your Own Online Business