Honors RAP: Cultural Explorations

Cultural Explorations Honors RAP is a chance for students interested in culture and societal issues to live with others with similar interests. It is open to students of all majors. This program is housed in Melville Hall, a low-rise building in southwest which will be a first-year Honors Living-Learning Community building. Students will be roommates with others in this program. Courses consist of those listed below, and the Front Page seminar will focus on cultural news and events.
