Friday, May 6 - Celebration of Excellence and UMass Amherst Commencement

12:30 p.m., Mullins Center

Seniors arrive to participate in the Celebration of Excellence procession, which begins promptly at 1:15 p.m. Know what to do before you go: read these instructions for participating in the Celebration of Excellence!

1:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m., Mullins Center
Honors Convocation, a “Celebration of Excellence” for Commonwealth Honors College Seniors

This ceremony individually recognizes graduating Honors students and presents each with a gold Honors stole to wear at University commencement. Seniors wear their caps and gowns and will be seated in a special area apart from their guests. Guest speakers address the graduates and their families. There are no tickets for this event, and seating in the Mullins Center is open.

4:30 p.m., McGuirk Alumni Stadium

University of Massachusetts Amherst Undergraduate Commencement

Degrees are formally conferred at this all-University graduation ceremony. It includes a full academic procession, honored speakers and music by the Commencement Band.

Please encourage your guests to park once for both ceremonies!

Saturday, May 7 - School & College recognition ceremonies for graduates

At various times and venues, individual schools and colleges hold events to recognize graduates. For details, visit www.umass.edu/commencement.
