

Melvin Howard Scholarship

Commonwealth Honors College students in their first, second or third year of study, with an interest in economics or business, are eligible to apply for the Melvin Howard Scholarship. The Melvin Howard Fund supports up to five $1,500 scholarships or Honor Research Grants relative to business or economics (see Honors Research Grants on the Commonwealth Honors College web site). The scholarships are awarded as a one-time grant and applied toward the student's tuition in the following academic year. Selection is based on a combination of financial need, academic achievement, and career goals.

Description

This scholarship is funded by an honors alumnus and consists of a one-time grant that is applied directly toward the student's tuition and fees.

Eligibility

Commonwealth Honors College members in their first, second or third year of study with an interest in economics or business, a minimum GPA of 3.4 and a one-page essay discussing educational and career goals and how a scholarship will help to achieve those goals.

Requirements

Commonwealth Honors College members in their first, second or third year of study with an interest in economics or business.
