

Nancy Cullen '76 Scholarship

Second and third-year students who are members of Commonwealth Honors College, participate in the UMass Amherst Minuteman Marching Band, and have demonstrated financial need are eligible to apply for the Nancy M. Cullen Scholarship Award. A proud alumna of the University of Massachusetts Amherst, Ms. Cullen established this scholarship to encourage and reward the dedication and commitment necessary to participate in the two programs. Financial need plays a significant role in the selection process.

Description

Nancy M. Cullen, a 1976 Honors Program graduate and UMass Minuteman Marching Band member credits the Honors Program and the UMass Minuteman Marching Band for fostering the dedication, discipline, and skills that have contributed to her own success. As a proud alumna of these two programs, she established the Nancy M. Cullen '76 Scholarship Award to encourage and reward participation in marching band and Commonwealth Honors College.

Eligibility

Applicants must be second or third-year students and have completed at least three semesters of college-level work at the time of application. Decisions will be based primarily on financial need, and secondarily on the last two questions listed on the application and on academic and co-curricular factors

Requirements

Applicants must be second or third-year CHC students and have completed at least three semesters of college-level work at the time of application, have a minimum GPA of 3.4, and have proven financial need.
