

Class of 1941 Humanitarian Award

Up to seven awards of at least $2250 are made annually to students who articulate how they plan to use their education toward the betterment of the world. Recipients are chosen from among junior and senior Commonwealth Honors College students in good standing who provide documentation of their community service and submit a written essay.

Description

The Class of 1941 graduated from the University at the inception of World War II. Living through the war years, they witnessed great upheaval throughout the world and lost many of their classmates in the conflagration. Their experiences instilled in them a deep concern for the issues of world peace and the furthering of human progress. On the occasion of their 50th reunion, these alumni sought to express this concern through the endowment of an annual awards program for junior and/or senior students at Commonwealth Honors College who share with them a commitment to the betterment of the world.

Eligibility

Junior and Senior Commonwealth Honors College Students in good standing, with a minimum GPA of 3.4.
