Scholarships and Financial Support: Current Sophomores

By and large, the scholarships and fellowships available through Commonwealth Honors College are for students currently attending the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

Commonwealth Honors College alumni have endowed a variety of scholarships and awards. Selection criteria for most of these scholarships combine financial need and academic merit, and many of the senior awards consider service to the community as well as academic excellence.

The college's fellowship programs build a progression of experiences: Through Research Assistant Fellowships, students gain experience working on a faculty member's research project, helping to prepare them to undertake their own research. The process associated with Honors Research Grants also provides students experience in writing a grant proposal, writing an abstract, preparing to present and disseminating the results of their work at the statewide conference on undergraduate research.

The Citizen Scholars Program offers scholarships and leadership training for students engaged in challenging work linking academics and community outreach. In addition, the college's Office of National Scholarship Advisement assists eligible students applying for prestigious fellowships such as the Rhodes, Marshall, Fulbright, and Truman Scholarships.
Members of the University of Massachusetts Amherst Commonwealth Honors College in good standing are eligible to apply for scholarships of up to $1,000 to assist with program costs for the summer abroad honors course, English 397DH - Alternative Theatres: Edinburgh Fringe Theatre Festival.
